Part of a Letter from WILLIAM BURTON, M. D. at Windſor, to C. Mortimer, R. S. Sec. concerning the Viper-Catchers, and their Remedy for the Bite of a Viper.

WINDSOR, May 24. 1734.

SIR,

THE Bearers of this, William Oliver and his Wife, called upon me laſt Week, with their Vipers, and either of them offered to be bit by any Viper, and to ſuffer their Arm to ſwell for ſome Time; and then by the external Application of a common cheap Remedy, in a few Hours to remove all the Symptoms. The Experiment was made laſt Wedneſday in our Town-Hall, before Dr. Derham, F. R. S. Dr. Waterland, the Phyſicians, Apothecaries, and Surgeons of this Town, and many other Gentlemen of this Neighbourhood. He was bit in the upper Joint of the Thumb, and higher up on the ſame Arm, by two different freſh Vipers: His Thumb, Hand and Arm, ſoon after ſwelled much, and all the Symptoms of a Viper-bite followed; he applied the Remedy (SALLAD-OIL) before us, with the promiſed Succeſs: But all the Contributors engaged not to divulge the Remedy. * * *

Yours, &c.

WILLIAM BURTON.

A Narration of the Experiments made June 1, 1734. before ſeveral Members of the Royal Society and others, on a Man, who ſuffer'd himſelf to be bit by a Viper, or common Adder; and on other Animals likewiſe bitten by the ſame, and other Vipers. Drawn up by Cromwell Mortimer, M. D. Secr. R. S.

WILLIAM OLIVER and his Wife, from Bath, who follow the Buſineſs of catching and ſelling Vipers, offered themſelves to be bit by any Viper that ſhould be procured, truſting to the Virtue of a Remedy they had lighted on by Chance in trying Variety of Things, when the Woman was once accidentally bitten, and the uſual known Medicines, even the Oil of Vipers, had no Effect in aſſwaging her Pains, eſpecially of her Breaſt of the ſame Side as the Hand in which ſhe had received the Wound. This Remedy, which is only common Oil of Olives, and, from its Uſe with Sallad, is vulgarly known by the Name of Sallad-Oil, recommends itſelf not only for its Efficacy, but likewiſe on Account of its being ready to come at, when Accidents happen, there being no Town, or even Gentleman's Houſe in the Country, where Sallad-Oil is not at hand; whereas the Oil of Vipers is never to be had, but at Apothecaries, and not one in a hundred of them keep it by them.

On the 1ſt of June 1734, in the Preſence of a great Number of Perſons, the ſaid William Oliver was bit by an old black Viper, or Adder, brought by one of the Company, upon the Wriſt and Joint of the Thumb of the right Hand, ſo that Drops of Blood came out of the Wounds. He ſaid that he immediately felt a violent Pain and ſhooting from the Wounds, both to the Top of his Thumb, and up his Arm, even before the Viper was looſen'd from his Hand; ſoon after he felt a Pain, reſembling that of Burning, trickle up his Arm; in a few Minutes his Eyes began to look red and fiery, and to water much: In leſs than half an Hour, he perceiv'd the Venom ſeize his Heart, with a prickling Pain, which was attended with Faintneſs and Shortneſs of Breath, whereupon he fell into violent cold Sweats: In a few Minutes after this, his Belly began to ſwell, with great Gripings, and Pains in his Back, which were attended with violent Vomitings and Purgings. He told me, that during the Violence of theſe Symptoms, his Sight was gone twice for ſeveral Minutes at a Time, but that he could hear all the while. He ſaid, that in his former Experiments he had never deferr'd making Uſe of his Remedy longer than when he perceiv'd the Effects of the Venom reaching his Heart; but this Time, being willing to ſatisfy the Company thoroughly, and truſting to the ſpeedy Effects of the Oil, which had never failed him, when uſed in Time, he forbore to apply to any Thing, till he found himſelf exceeding ill, and quite giddy.

About an Hour and Quarter after the firſt of his being bit, a Chafing Diſh of glowing Charcoal was brought in, and his Arm, the Cloaths being ſtript off of it, was held over it as near, as he could bear it, while his Wife rubb'd in with her Hand the Sallad-Oil, (which I had bought by the Name of Lucca-Oil) turning his Arm continually round, as if ſhe would have roaſted it over the Coals: He ſaid, that the Pain ſoon abated, but the Swelling did not diminiſh much; moſt violent Vomitings and Purgings ſoon enſued, and his Pulſe became ſo low, and ſo often interrupted, that it was thought proper by the Phyſicians preſent, to give him the following Cordial Draughts, at about a Quarter of an Hour's Diſtance between each.

1. Recp. Aq. Lact. Pæon ana 3 Oun. Sp. Lavandulæ 1 Dram. pro duobus hauſtibus.
2. Recp. Confect. Raliegh half Dra. Aq. Theriacal. half Oun. Sp. C. C. gtt. x. m. f. hauſtus.
3. Recp. Confect. Raliegh. Theriac. Andromach. ana half Dra. Sal. C. C. gr. v. Aq. Theriacal. 2 Oun. pro duobus hauſtibus.

He ſaid he was not ſenſible of any great Relief from theſe Cordials; but that a Glaſs or two of Olive-Oil drank down, ſeem'd to give him ſome Eaſe.

Continuing in this dangerous Condition, he was put to Bed as ſoon as one could be got ready for him, where his Arm was again bathed with his Remedy over a Pan of Charcoal ſet by the Bed-ſide: But continuing to complain much of his Back and Belly, I adviſed his Wife to rub them likewiſe with Sallad-Oil, heated in a Ladle over the Charcoal, which ſhe did accordingly; whereupon he declared he found immediate Eaſe, as tho' by ſome Charm; and he had not above two or three Reachings to vomit and Stools afterwards, but made Water plentifully, which was not diſcolour'd: Then he ſoon fell into a ſound Sleep, only was often interrupted by Perſons coming to ſee and enquire after him, till near 12 o'Clock, from which Time he ſlept continually to 5 or 6 next Morning, when he awaked, and found himſelf very well: But in the Afternoon, on drinking ſome ſtrong Beer, ſo as to be almoſt fudled, the Swelling returned, with much Pain, and cold Sweats; which abated ſoon on bathing the Arm as before, and wrapping it up in brown Paper ſoak'd with Oil.

Two Pidgeons were bit by the ſame Viper immediately after the Man: They ſoon ſicken'd, and ſeemed giddy. Nothing being apply'd, the one died in about an Hour's time, the other half an Hour after. The Fleſh of both were turn'd quite black, as if mortified; the Blood was coagulated, and look'd black.

On the 3d of June, the Man's Arm remained ſwelled, looked red, marbled with Spots of Yellow, but felt ſoft; and he had the perfect Uſe of it, and even of his Fingers, no Pain or Stiffneſs being left. He then cauſed a ſmall Spaniel Dog to be bit on the Noſe by a freſh Viper: Some Oil was immediately apply'd hot, and rubbed well in, till all the Hair of his Noſe was thoroughly wet; The Dog did not ſeem very uneaſy; his Noſe only ſwell'd a little; he eat ſoon after; his Noſe was bathed once more that Evening; he was found very well next Morning; but his Noſe was bathed again, to make ſure of his Cure: He remained perfectly well without any Symptoms enſuing, and was alive and well a Year after. Another Pidgeon was likewiſe bit under the Wing at the ſame Time as the Dog, but by a freſh Viper; the Oil was immediately applied hot and rubbed well in, and the Feathers of the Wing were thoroughly wetted with it. This Bird did not ſeem at all diſorder'd with the Venom, but eat ſoon after, and was found well next Morning, without any remarkable Inflammation or Swelling about the Part. The hot Oil was rubbed in again for 2 or 3 Days, twice a Day, and the Bird continued well, ſo that the Viper-catchers carried it with them out of Town in Triumph, having never before experienced the Efficacy of their Remedy on ſo ſmall an Animal; which, as it receives the ſame Quantity of Venom by a Bite as a larger one doth, is more liable to die under it: And they kept it alive above 3 Months, when they killed it and eat it. They ſaid that they had experienced their Remedy to take Effect on Cows, Horſes, and Dogs, 10 Hours after being bit. But that for themſelves, who are frequently bit in the Fields, as they catch the Vipers, they always carry a Vial of Sallad-Oil along with them, that, as ſoon as they perceive themſelves wounded, they without any Loſs of Time, bathe the Parts with it; and if it be the Heel, they wet the Stocking thoroughly with it; if the Finger, which happens oftenеſt, they pour ſome of it into that Finger of their Glove, which they immediately put on again, and thus never feel any farther Inconvenience from the Accident, not even ſo much as from the Sting of a common Bee.

Perhaps it may be found of Uſe for the Bite of Rattle-Snakes and other venomous Animals; eſpecially if we conſider, that in the Fields a Man ſeldom or never receives more than one Bite at a Time, which doth not infect him with ſo much Venom, as was inſtilled into this Man's Blood, when in thoſe voluntary Experiments he ſuffer'd himſelf to be bitten twice together; and had likewiſe been bitten three times but about a Week or 10 Days before; ſome Remains of which Venom, it is highly reaſonable to imagine, might ſtill infect his Blood at the Time he repeated the Experiments, ſo as to make a freſh Quantity of the Venom, operate with greater Violence upon his Body, than if he had been quite a freſh Man, never infected with the like Poiſon before, or at leaſt at ſo great an Interval of Time, that his Blood might have been entirely free from all Remains of ſuch an acrid Infection. From theſe Experiments it is not unreaſonable to imagine, that the Oil by it ſelf, may be as efficacious againſt the Sting of a Scorpion, as if Scorpions were infuſed in it.

I ſhould not have forborn ſo long imparting the Knowledge of ſo uſeful a Remedy to the Publick, had not the poor People injoined every one preſent at the Experiments, not to divulge what their Remedy was, till they ſhould give me Leave to make it publick in theſe Papers, which they have now done. The Reaſon of their keeping it a Secret, was the Hopes of obtaining an handſome Reward from generous and charitable People: But now having loſt all Proſpect of any conſiderable Recompence, they were unwilling that the Means of immediate Relief to thoſe, who ſhould have the Misfortune of being bit by an Adder, ſhould any longer be with-held from them; and they are deſirous, that this their Remedy againſt the Bite of a Viper, may be publickly known.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

WARSAW, March 18.

NEWS from the Frontiers of Turky ſay, that the Seraſkier Sultan of Budziack arriv'd the latter end of laſt Month, with a great Body of Tartars, within ſix Leagues of Bender, in order to make an Irruption into the Territories of Ruſſia. They write from Kiovia, that the Ruſſian Troops kept themſelves upon their Guard in the Ukraine, that they might not be ſurpriz'd by any Incurſion of the Tartars. It's reported at Choczim, that the Great Mogul has declar'd War againſt Thamas Kouli Kan.

A Turkiſh Aga is ſpeedily expected here, who it's ſaid will have it in Charge to aſk the Interpoſition of the King and the Republick, to make ſome Propoſitions for concluding a Peace between his Highneſs, the Emperor, and Ruſſia. It's not doubted but that theſe Propoſitions will be favourably receiv'd, provided that a general Peace is aim'd at. The Council of Senators will aſſemble ſoon after the Arrival of the Aga, to deliberate upon what he would have propos'd. The Army which the Grand Vizier will command in Hungary will be compos'd of 150,000 Men.

SCHAFFHAUSEN, March 25. They write from Belgrade, that the Turks ſeem to have a Deſign to poſt themſelves at the Confluence of the Danube and the Sava, in order to ſhut up this Place on that ſide, and to prevent the Communication of the two Rivers. It's added, that a Party of the Enemy had taken Avalas, a ſmall Poſt, about three Leagues from hence, ſituate upon a Mountain, where there is a Silver Mine, had kill'd ſome of the Workmen belonging thereto, and taken others of them Priſoners.

LONDON, March 29. Letters from Vienna ſay, that the Imperial Court is extremely diſconcerted in its Plan of Operation againſt the Turks, by the Impoſſibility of obtaining the 30,000 Ruſſian Troops which had been promis'd it. Very ſevere Reproaches have been made upon this Subject to M. Barkel, the new Ruſſian Miniſter. As he has been given to underſtand by all the Diſcourſe which he has had ſince his Arrival at Vienna, the Imperial Court is exceedingly diſcontented with the Conduct of that of Petersburg, and that conſequently his Reſidence at Vienna will be diſagreeable to him, he earneſtly wiſhes to return ſpeedily to Berlin. In the mean Time the Court of Ruſſia, to demonſtrate its Readineſs to ſupply the Emperor with the Money offer'd as an Equivalent for the Troops which were to have been ſent to his Aſſiſtance, and to remove the Suſpicion that Count d'Oſtein had raiſed to the contrary, has order'd its Bankers immediately to pay his Imperial Majeſty 500,000 Rubles, and the Baron de Keyſerlin, who is returning from Petersburg to Vienna, has it in Charge to negociate 500,000 more at Lipſwig, to be afterwards return'd from thence to Vienna. The Imperial Court would nevertheleſs have preferr'd to this Sum of Money the Aſſiſtance of the Ruſſian Troops, which have been enur'd to Difficulties and Hardſhips; whereas the Recruits and freſh Troops that are ſent to Hungary, in order to avoid the Dangers ariſing from Peſtilence, Famine and the Sword, deſert almoſt as faſt as they arrive there.

They write from Cadiz, that a Swediſh Man of War, which was bound from Gottenburg to Conſtantinople with Arms, Artillery and Ammunition, towards diſcharging the Debts which Charles XII. contracted at Bender, ſtruck upon a Rock near St. Pedro, 4 Leagues from Cadiz, was caſt away, and moſt of the Crew drowned. She carried 72 Guns and 400 Men.

They write from Amſterdam, that the Promotion of General Officers has met with a freſh Remora. The Oppoſers of a Stadtholder are ſo much upon their Guard, and ſo jealous of every Thing which ſeems to have a Tendency to raiſe the Prince of Orange to that eminent Station, that they have perſuaded themſelves the Condition in the Reſolution of the Province of Frieſland for appointing the Prince General at the next ſucceeding Promotion, is bringing him too near that high Poſt; wherefore the Deputies of the oppoſing Provinces have in ſuch manner deferr'd determining any Thing upon this Reſolution, that it's believ'd that they will never conſent to it, they having declar'd, that a Promotion of Lieutenant-Generals being only neceſſary, they could not engage themſelves in any Condition that went further than that. If the Provinces perſiſt in theſe Sentiments, the Promotion may not probably yet take Place.
